St John's Parish Scripture Group.

This friendly and informal group meets in the Presbytery at 7.30pm each Thursday. All are most welcome to come along. We read the Scripture texts for the following Sunday's Mass, and then we have a relaxed chat about the meaning, message and relevance of each. New Year's Prayer

Dear Lord,
As we begin this new year, we thank you for the gift of life, for the lessons of the past, and for the hope that lies ahead.

We place 2026 into Your loving hands.
Guide our steps, strengthen our faith and grant us wisdom in every decision we make.

Bless our families with good health, peace, and protection

Fill our hearts with gratitude, patience, and love, and help us to trust Your plans even when the path is unclear.

May this year draw us closer to You and may all that we do bring glory to Your name.
We entrust this new beginning to You, Lord.
Amen.

The Baptism of the Lord - 11th January 2026

The Baptism of the Lord

Baptism is the foundation of Christian life. This is because it introduces everyone to the greatest gift, which has to be children of God, that is, to share in Jesus' relationship with the Father in the Spirit. There is nothing higher than this baptismal dignity equally bestowed upon each person, through which we are invited to clothe ourselves with Christ and be grafted onto him like branches of the one vine.

During 2025 a total of 89 children were baptised in our parish. On this, the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we pray God's continued care and blessing for them, their parents, and families. "By God's gift, through water and the Holy Spirit, we are reborn into everlasting life. In his goodness, may God continue to pour out his blessings on these daughters and sons of his. May he make them, wherever they may be, faithful members of his holy people".

Baptisms in our parish take place on the 1st and 3rd Saturday of each month at 4.30pm and the 4th Sunday at 12.30pm. Bookings can be made at the Parish Office.

Closing of the Holy Year of Hope

On the Feast of the Epiphany Pope Leo XIV closed the Holy Door at St Peter's thus ending the Jubilee Year of Hope. Only once before, in 1700, has a Holy Year been opened by one Pope and closed by another. Pope Innocent XII formally opened the jubilee for that year; he died in September 1700 and his successor, Pope Clement XI, closed the jubilee in his place.

In his homily Pope Leo XIV asked "After this year, will we be better able to recognize a pilgrim in the visitor, a seeker in the stranger, a neighbour in the foreigner, and fellow travellers in those who are different?" He hoped that the Jubilee of Hope ought to serve as a turning point for believers and marks the beginning of a new chapter in both living hope and bringing it to the world. "In the place of inequality, may there be fairness, and may the industry of war be replaced by the craft of peace," he said.

Pope Boniface VIII inaugurated the first Holy Year in 1300 which was celebrated every 100 years. Later following biblical tradition, it was observed every 50 years. It was decided by Pope Paul II in 1490 to observe the jubilee year every 25 years, so that each person could experience one in their lifetime. It is expected that an extraordinary jubilee will be declared for 2033, the year commemorating the 2000th anniversary of Jesus's death and resurrection.

St Ita – Feast Day 15th January

Saint Ita, “the Foster Mother of the Irish Saints,” was born in the fifth century. She, like many of the Irish saints, was born in Co. Waterford of noble and Christian parents. Early on she set her mind on serving Christ in religious life. She founded a monastery, school, and convent at Killeedy which still bears her name near Newcastle West in County Limerick. A holy well still marks the site of her church.

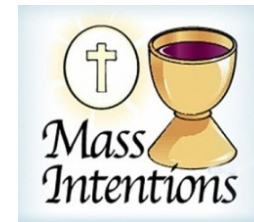

St. Ita once told St. Brendan that the three things most displeasing to God were a face that hates mankind, a will that clings to the love of evil, and placing one's entire trust in riches. The three things most pleasing to God were the firm belief of a pure heart in God, the simple religious life, and liberality with charity. St. Ita fell asleep in the Lord in 570AD.

St Ita, pray for us that we will live our faith through our daily words and actions.

Pope's January Prayer Intention

With the new year, Pope Leo XIV has thrown his support behind a renewed initiative known as “Pray with the Pope,” which brings his monthly prayer intentions to the Church throughout the world. The new initiative continues Pope Francis' desire to share papal prayer intentions by video and audio. This new initiative aims to increase the visibility of the Pope's prayer intentions, using a language suitable for prayer, in new formats, so as to better reach the faithful throughout the world, especially in today's world of digital communication. In his first video under the new format, Pope Leo XIV invites the faithful to pray frequently with the Word of God. Only the Gospel, he said, can give peace and fullness to the human heart, which he noted is restless and hungers for meaning. “Teach us to listen to you each day in the Scriptures,” he said, “to let ourselves be challenged by your voice, and to discern our decisions from the closeness to your Heart.” God's Word in Sacred Scripture, continued the Pope, provides “nourishment in weariness, hope in darkness, and strength in our communities.” Formerly known as The Pope Video, the new “Pray with the Pope” initiative seeks to unite the Church behind the Holy Father's daily prayer. “Pray with the Pope” is available on <https://youtu.be/s1CBCcEIkME> and on our parish website and Facebook page.
